DIS/ENTANGLING TECHNOSCIENCE:

CONFERENCE ONLINE PLATFORM

While the persistent public health crisis caused by Covid-19 compelled us to organize a fully virtual conference, we nonetheless strived to outline a conference program and to build a Conference Online Platform able to foster peer-to-peer interaction and engagement.

The Conference Online Platform will host the Plenary Sessions, the Parallel Sessions, as well as the scheduled roundtable and early career networking meetings. Furthermore, via the Conference Online Platform, you may access the Conference Video Library hosting short audio/video, the panelists have recorded before the conference.

While convenors are in charge of ensuring the smooth and seamless running of the track you joined (seeking to encourage peer-to-peer interaction and engagement), conference participants, are kindly recommended to listen/watch all the audio/video, recorded by the participants in the tracks they are going to attend, so that the time allocated to presenting the submissions can be reduced and the space for interaction/discussion can be maximised.

Starting from early June, the audios/videos will be available on the Video Library.

You can access the Conference Online Platform following the active link on the conference website www.stsitaliaconf2020.com by clicking on "JOIN THE CONFERENCE ONLINE PLATFORM".

JOIN THE CONFERENCE ONLINE PLATFORM

The link will open the login page of the conference platform at:

<https://stsitaliaconference.spazioiris.it/login>

The login page has a dark blue background. At the top, it says "Login" in white. Below that is a welcome message: "Welcome back, please login to your account." There are two input fields: "E-Mail Address" and "Password", each with a small icon to its left. Below the password field is a "Remember me" checkbox and a "Forgot Password?" link. At the bottom, there are two buttons: "Register" and "Login".

DIS/ENTANGLING TECHNOSCIENCE:

CONFERENCE ONLINE PLATFORM

Registration will open on June 3, 2021 and will close on June, 15, 2021. Due to security reasons, we are unable to grant access to the conference if registrations are made after the deadline. Please, consider that the confirmation mail could be filtered as spam by your email provider.

After the registration you can login with your mail and password to the welcome page of the Conference Online Platform. From the welcome page, you can reach different "rooms" with different functions:

- a webpage where it will be possible to download the program;
- a virtual "meeting room" on Zoom where three Early Career Networking Meetings will be organized;
- a "help desk" room on Zoom where information and/or technical assistance can be requested;
- the Video Library where the short audio/video clips recorded by the conference participants are archived.
- Below, information on how to access the video library contents below.

By clicking on "Plenaries & Thematic Tracks" you will be redirected to the rooms hosting the conference sessions (see picture below). Then by clicking on the door you can access the sessions scheduled in each room.

To exit the welcome page, close the tab in your browser.

By clicking on “Video Library” you will be redirected to the website which gathers short audio/video the panelists have recorded before the conference.

To browse and watch the audio/video clips archived in the Video Library, you shall login using your email address. The password will be send via email by the next June 3, 2021. By clicking the menu top right (push-button right of "contact") you can select your language.

PLENARIES

THURSDAY, JUNE 17TH - 10.00 - 11.30 CEST

AMADE M'CHAREK (UNIVERSITY OF AMSTERDAM)

POSTCOLONIAL FLOWS AND FORENSICS AS AN ART OF PAYING ATTENTION

CHAIR: ASSUNTA VITERITTI (SAPIENZA UNIVERSITY OF ROME)

ABSTRACT

In this talk I want to narrate several stories that can help us grasp that magnitude of death and dying in the Mediterranean Sea. An attempt to narrate the crisis away, and to attend to the chronicity of Europe's ongoing (post)colonial involvement on the African continent. In these stories of encounter on the beaches of Zarzis, a town in the south of Tunisia, my entry point is (traces) of bodies that wash ashore. Traces, such as, worn-out sneakers and slippers, or clothing and toys. However, since the place matters, these traces will take us in different directions as well. Through a loose connection between a diversity of material traces, I suggest a shift and broadening of the notion of forensics. From a practice of delivering evidence about a single event, to an art of paying attention. The latter is a move towards materiality and material traces that could help us to re-configure the realities of death and dying and articulate the ambivalences and politics of persistent colonial relations.

Attending to death and dying beyond Europe's border management regime I argue that what we are facing is not simply a humanitarian problem but a political problem, one that implicates us in intricate ways.

FRIDAY, JUNE 18TH - 11.30 - 13.00 CEST

RENÉ VON SCHOMBERG (EUROPEAN COMMISSION, DIRECTORATE GENERAL FOR RESEARCH AND INNOVATION / TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY OF DARMSTADT)

RESPONSIBLE INNOVATION: A CALL FOR INSTITUTIONAL CHANGE

CHAIR: SIMONE ARNALDI (UNIVERSITY OF TRIESTE)

ABSTRACT

I will present Responsible Innovation as a new paradigm for innovation which is distinct from the current dominant market-innovation paradigm as well as from the state mandated and controlled technological innovation paradigm.

The Responsible Innovation paradigm is characterized by a widened scope of responsibility for the governance of innovation by public authorities concerning both the risks and socially desired outcomes of innovation. Responsible Innovation can only live up to its expectations subsequent to institutional change. Institutional change is required in:

- The way we conduct, fund and reward research and innovation practices: open research and scholarship
- Economic policy: addressing market deficits on delivering societal desirable outcomes
- Innovation management: public authorities must reclaim their role after decades of privatization, and enable anticipatory governance
- Regulation and ethics of emerging technologies: Shifting from an 'ethics of constraints' for emerging technologies towards an institutionalization of an ethics of collective co-responsibility.

SATURDAY, JUNE 19TH - 11.30 - 13.00 CEST

DIMITRI PAPADOPOULOS (UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM)

ELEMENTAL JUSTICE: NECROCHEMICALS, ECOLOGICAL REPARATION AND GENERATIVE CHEMICAL PRACTICE

CHAIR: LUIGI PELLIZZONI (UNIVERSITY OF PISA)

ABSTRACT

If our worlds are unimaginable, or, ironically, perhaps even unsustainable without anthropogenic chemicals, what does it mean to live and navigate the toxic regime, this historical moment where human made substances are so entangled with ecologies and societies that envisioning a clean-up is no longer an option? Necrochemicals reign our everyday lives. They protract life and administer death. As life is becoming more and more chemical, chemical practice is becoming aware of its contribution to environmental destruction and its ecological embeddedness. Chemical practice becomes obliged by ecology. With obligation comes the quest for reparation, both as repair and as compensation for/restoration of the damage done. Instead of a chemistry as one single scientific endeavour obliged to growth and progress, ecological reparation involves a generative chemical practice that entails a multiplicity of many different ontological acts of ecological healing. Chemical practice becomes dispersed: From green and sustainable chemistry to the distributed invention power of amateur scientists, indigenous knowledges, remediation ecologists, interspecies collaborations, community technoscience. Striving for reparation of contaminated worlds is a quest for elemental justice: Who has the freedom to decide what chemical substances to create? And, how is this freedom achieved?

GENETICS AND BIOMEDICAL INNOVATION:
RISKY, PROMISING OR SOMETHING IN BETWEEN?

CONVENORS

BARBARA MORSELLO (BRUNO KESSLER FOUNDATION)
VERONICA MORETTI (UNIVERSITY OF BOLOGNA)

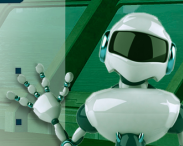

1.1 Thursday, June 17, 12.00-13.00 CEST, Room 2

- Giuseppina Pellegrino – From protocol-based to translational medicine: how technoscience and a research approach can change a patient's life
- Pascale Bourret, Alberto Cambrosio, Jonah Campbell, Peter Keating, Jessica Polk – “Predictive oncology to acquire quantitative medicine”: The data-centric turn of contemporary oncology
- Pierre Delvenne, Kim Hendrickx, Céline Parotte – Moving cells to the market: an inquiry into the circulation and valuation of stem cells

1.2 Thursday, June 17, 14.00-15.30 CEST, Room 2

- Wairopkam Premi Devi, Ian McGonigle – Imaginaries of Genomic Innovation: Precision Medicine and National Development Plans in Singapore
- Chiara Carboni – Conceptualizing the work-related implications of digital healthcare technologies: A metaphor-based critical interpretive synthesis
- Ilenia Picardi, Zollo Sole Alba – From public fetus to the digital fetus: an analysis of women's narratives of biomedical prenatal images on the web
- Alice Scavarda – “Is there someone weird within the family?” Prenatal and postnatal testing and the medicalisation of family relationships in presence of disability
- Daniela Bandelli – Gestational surrogacy and the vulnerability of homo deus
- Edmondo Grassi – Artificial Ethics and Biophysical Enhancement

TRACK 2

DIS/ENTANGLING LIVING BODIES AND MEDICAL TECHNOLOGIES
 IN THE POST-GENOMIC ERA:
 HEALTH AND WELLBEING AT THE NEXUS BETWEEN VULNERABILITIES, RESPONSIBILITY AND SOLIDARITY

CONVENORS

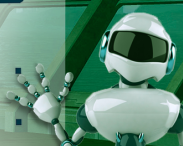

STEFANO CRABU (POLITECNICO DI MILANO)
 FEDERICO NERESINI (UNIVERSITY OF PADOVA)

2.1 Thursday, June 17, 14.00-15.30 CEST, Room 7

- Stefano Canali – The exposome as a postgenomic repertoire: Exploring scientific change in contemporary epidemiology
- Nadav Even Chorev – Reproducing the Normal and the Pathological in Personalized Cancer Medicine
- Maya Hey – Tangled health and the matters of concern that feed microbiome research
- Marko Monteiro, Érica Renata de Souza – Brazilian scientific production on Alzheimer's disease: what types of prevention it helps to produce and for whom?
- Ludovica Rubini – Associazioni di pazienti e ricerca post-genomica: La Malattia di Huntington in Italia
- Ilaria Galasso – Public or Private Genome Sequencing? Comparing Ideologies, Ethical Concerns and Patterns of Exclusion
- Manoj Vimal, Ian McGonigle, Wairopkam Premi Devi – Generational Medicine in Singapore: A National Biobank for a Greying Nation

2.2 Thursday, June 17, 16.00-17.00 CEST, Room 7

- Magdalena Eitenberger – Patient-Empowered Technology: Political Decision-Making and Lived Technology-Use for Type 1-Diabetes
- Gülsevim Eysel – You may have blue eyes but I have a number of good-quality oocytes: A conflict among Turkish oocyte donors
- Xaroula Kerasidou – Configuring ethical AI
- Dušan Ristić – We Have Never Been Healthy: Lifelogging, Will to Applications and Personalization of Big Data
- Mauro Turrini – My genome on the Net. Digitalizing the molecular self, and sharing personal genetic information

FROM THE IMAGINARY TO EMANCIPATION AND BACK.
THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN DISABILITY AND TECHNOLOGY

CONVENOR

ARIANNA RADIN (UNIVERSITY OF BERGAMO)

3.1 Thursday, June 17, 12.00-13.00 CEST, Room 5

- Nihan Bozok, Mehmet Bozok – Wounded Storytellers of Digital Media: A Nethnographic Research on Two Instagram Cases from Turkey
- Malou Cesca – Approccio socio-antropologico all'integrazione dei portatori di impianti cocleari: rappresentazione sociale della sordità e dell'impianto nelle famiglie e socializzazione delle persone sorde impiantate
- Lucie Dalibert, Valentine Gourinat – Prosthetic users navigating conflictual expectations: Reaching emancipation and avoiding stigmatisation with upper and lower-limb prostheses

TRACK 4

DIS-ENTANGLING LATER LIFE:
AGEING PROCESSES, INNOVATIVE PRACTICES AND CRITICAL REFLECTIONS

CONVENORS

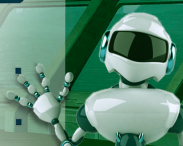

SILVIA FORNASINI (UNIVERSITY OF TRENTO / FONDAZIONE BRUNO KESSLER)
FRANCESCO MIELE (UNIVERSITY OF PADOVA)
FRANCISCO NUNES (FRAUNHOFER PORTUGAL AICOS)

4.1 Friday, June 18, 14.00-15.30 CEST, Room 3

- William Jones – Information, Knowledge & Successful Aging
- Giovanna Vicarelli, Micol Bronzini – Research on aging processes: the challenge of biological age
- Érica Renata de Souza – Ageing, prevention of Alzheimer's Disease and scientific production: a reflection from the field of STS and the debate on the social markers of difference
- Nicoletta Bosco – "Don't you give up on me" Ridefinizioni di senso come pratiche innovative
- Giuseppe Monteduro, Sara Nanetti – Aging and frail elderly, between isolation and connection a research perspective

4.2 Friday, June 18, 16.00-17.00 CEST, Room 3

- Simone Carlo, Francesco Bonifacio – Digital media and later life in rural Italy: an ethnographic research
- Monica Murero – The Raise of the "Invisibles": Innovating Elderly Digital Care During and After COVID-19
- Orkide Izci, Valentina Quaglia, Marco Terraneo, Mara Tognetti – The use of the internet and digital divide: The case of migrant elderlies in times of pandemic
- Giulia Melis, Emanuele Sala, Daniele Zaccaria – Ageing, social media, and everyday life during Covid-19. A qualitative case study on older people living in the first European "Red Zone"

TRACK 5

DISENTANGLING TECHNOSCIENCE AND SENSORY EXPERIENCE

CONVENORS

VALENTINA MARCHESELLI (UNIVERSITY OF MILAN)
 GIAMPIETRO GOBO (UNIVERSITY OF MILAN)

5.1 Saturday, June 19, 9.30-11.00 CEST, Room 4

- Alvisè Mattozzi - Where are the missing body masses? Describing the body of the actant
- Letizia Zampino - Disentangling the sensorial experiences across the intra-actions between the embodied knowledge (s) and the wearable technologies
- Valentina Turrini - Touch, engineered: the social construction of haptic interfaces
- Denisa Butnaru - Reinventing ability. Constructions of "sense(s) of agency" with exoskeletal devices in spinal cord injury and stroke
- Vincenzo Giorgino - The hearing experience between the body-mind and digital technologies

TRACK 7

DIGITAL TECHNOLOGIES AND POWER RELATIONS IN WORK AND ORGANIZATIONS. THEORETICAL AND EMPIRICAL PERSPECTIVES

CONVENORS

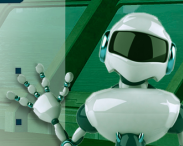

ATTILA BRUNI (UNIVERSITY OF TRENTO)
 LIA TIRABENI (UNIVERSITY OF MILANO BICOCCA)

7.1 Friday, June 18, 14.00-15.30 CEST, Room 4

- Silvia Doria - Mi fido, ma non troppo. Le relazioni di potere dentro e fuori lo smart space
- Francesco Saverio Ranieri - Nuove tecnologie e servizi per l'impiego: il caso degli elenchi di prenotazione telematica per il lavoro agricolo nel Lazio per il contrasto al caporalato.
- Klara-Aylin Wenten - In/visible work at the agile workplace
- Robin Renwick - "ALERT - Behaviour Error": understanding the human as the socio-technical cybersecurity weak-spot
- Vincent Blok, Christopher Coenen, Christos Kallionatis, Angeliki Kitsiou, Aikaterini-Georgia Mavroeidi, Simone Milani, Daniele Ruggiu, Andrea Sitzi - Responsible Research and Innovation at Work. Gamification, Public Engagement and Privacy by Design

7.2 Friday, June 18, 16.00-17.00 CEST, Room 4

- Fabio M. Esposito - Between Control and Discretionality, Digital Platforms as "Adhocratic Infrastructures": The case of Airbnb
- Francesco Bonifacio - Riding for Glovo: An enactive ethnography of food-delivery work
- Gianmarco Peterlongo - Le asimmetrie informative nel lavoro on-demand: usi e contro-usi della macchina nel capitalismo delle infrastrutture

TRACK 8

WEAK SYSTEMS. EXPLORING BIAS, BUGS AND THE VULNERABILITY OF DIGITIZATION

CONVENORS

PAOLO BORY (POLITECNICO DI MILANO)

PHILIP DI SALVO (USI UNIVERSITÀ DELLA SVIZZERA ITALIANA)

8.1 Saturday, June 19, 9.30-11.00 CEST, Room 6

- Veronica Barassi - The Human Error in AI and the Conflicts over Algorithms
- Alex Dean Cybulski - Capturing Hacker Culture. Open Source Reverse Engineering Tools and Hacker Morality
- Louis Melançon - The Origins of Heartbleed: From Code Experiment to Industry Standard
- Stefania Milan - Bias, failures and bugs in anti-COVID19 technology
- Maria Rikitienskaia - The global success at the cost of safety: the case of the Wi-Fi standard

TRACK 9

DIGITALISATION AND WORK: PERILS AND PROMISE

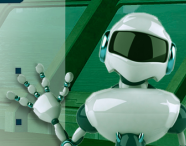

CONVENORS

ROBERT GIANNI (UNIVERSITY OF MAASTRICHT)

DARIAN MEACHAM (UNIVERSITY OF MAASTRICHT)

9.1 Saturday, June 19, 9.30-11.00 CEST, Room 3

- Pinar Karababa Demircan - Women's Re-Placement to the Digitalized Silk Carpet Weaving Sector: The Case of Turkey
- Cordula Kropp - Risky collaborations: distributed control in cyber-physical systems
- Daniel Krüger - Open education labs and digital divide
- Nicola Lettieri - Into algorithmic arcana. A data-driven, critical research approach to the digitalization of work.
- Vlad Schuler Costa - Whose unemployment? The automation of science and "job loss" narratives amongst automation scientists

TRACK 10

PLATFORMS AND INFRASTRUCTURES IN MEDIA AND CULTURAL INDUSTRIES

CONVENORS

TIZIANO BONINI (UNIVERSITY OF SIENA)

PAOLO MAGAUDDA (UNIVERSITY OF PADOVA)

10.1 Friday, June 18, 14.00-15.30 CEST, Room 6

- Philippe Bouquillion, Christine Ithurbide - Digital platforms reshaping national audiovisual spaces: a comparative approach between France and India
- Massimo Airoidi - Machines on my back. Platformized cultural circulation and the socialization of algorithms
- Davide Carpano - Free and Open Source Software as Platform Infrastructure: How Google Uses Open Technology to Close the Internet
- Elisabetta Locatelli - (Social) media memory, cultural production, and platformization: articulating archive, assemblage, and ephemerality in the case of the Sanremo Music Festival
- Elisa Oreglia - Online entertainment eco-systems as gateways to digital literacy
- Enrico Campo - Between emancipation and degradation of cognitive processes: digital technologies, neuronal plasticity, and extended unconsciousness

10.2 Friday, June 18, 16.00-17.00 CEST, Room 6

- Sofia Torre - Make Reddit not Porn. La convergenza fra il Web 1.0 e il Web 2.0 nella nuova modalità di diffusione di materiale pornografico
- Alberto Novello - Contemporary Video Art: recycling and readapting tools from the past
- Gaia Casagrande - "Keeping it for myself": Forme di self-branding e lavoro relazionale implicite nell'epoca della sorveglianza
- Martin Fomasi - Come ha potuto funzionare il Web? Retrospettiva sulla comunicazione degli attori all'interno del CERN

TRACK 11

MAPPING TECHNOSCIENCE IN THE MEDIA:
HOW TO DO IT, AND WHAT IS IT IN, WHAT IS IT OUT?

CONVENORS

FEDERICO NERESINI (UNIVERSITY OF PADOVA)
MARTIN BAUER (LONDON SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS)
AHMET SUERDEM (BILGI UNIVERSITY)

11.1 Friday, June 18, 14.00-15.30 CEST, Room 7

- Carlos G. Figuerola - Tracking science over time in the news press through topic modeling and network analysis
- Edoardo Zulato, Martin W. Bauer, Lorenzo Montali - Disentangling a liminal condition: Comparing emerging debates and representations of the vegetative state
- Ahmet Suerdem, Yazgan Ege - Hype cycles in AI technologies
- Eugenio Petrovich - Bibliometrics in Press. Representations and Uses of Bibliometric Indicators in the Italian Daily Newspapers

11.1 Friday, June 18, 16.00-17.00 CEST, Room 7

- Paul Dunshirn - Who assembles the 'future of work'? Mapping actors and discourses in U.S. American web debates on job automation
- Paolo Giardullo - Exploring socio-technical future scenarios in the media: the energy transition case in Italian daily newspapers
- Giorgio Osti, Sara Fabbro - Social media as new mediators in environmental disasters. The Moms-noPfas movement in Veneto region

TRACK 12

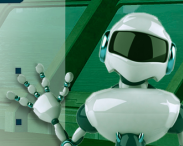

SURVEILLANCE INFRASTRUCTURES OR OPEN PLATFORMS?
AID AND CONTROL OF VULNERABLE POPULATIONS THROUGH DIGITAL DATA

CONVENORS

ANNALISA PELIZZA (UNIVERSITY OF BOLOGNA)
LORENZO OLIVIERI (UNIVERSITY OF BOLOGNA)

12.1 Thursday, June 17, 16.00-17.30 CEST, Room 2

- Laetitia Della Torre - Digital health records for refugees: from data ownership to biopower?
- Federico Montanari - Mapping solidarity. Maps as surveillance or resistance devices?
- Lorenzo Olivieri - Smartphones and social media security checks at the European borders: novel temporal landscapes of surveillance
- Alice Fill - Developing practices of digital refolement? Between pushbacks, pullbacks and backscattering
- Roxana Varvara Boboc - Digital Contact Tracing as Entry Point to a Digital Public Infrastructure: A Critical Perspective on Public-Private Partnerships
