

Łukasz Wilga

Łukasz Wilga was born on the 6th of February, 1992 in Bytom. He graduated from the Fryderyk Chopin Primary and Secondary Music School in Bytom under the supervision of Agnieszka Kulikow-Światała. In 2011 he began studies at the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music in Katowice in the class of prof. Wojciech Światała. In 2014 he received a bachelor's degree and in 2016 - a master's degree with honours. In 2019 he completed doctoral studies at the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music in Katowice in the piano class of prof. Wojciech Światała and in 2022 he earned his PhD title. Since 2016 he has been teaching piano and coaching vocal students during the lectures in the Vocal-Acting Faculty therein. In 2021 he began postgraduate studies in piano performance under the guidance of prof. Zbigniew Raubo. He participated in many national and international piano competitions receiving numerous awards and distinctions. He perfected his skills during piano masterclasses under the guidance of, among others, prof. A. Jasiński, prof. J. Sterczyński, prof. P. Giusiano, prof. A. Malikova, dr. W. Kocyan and dr. D. Biran. He has performed with the Silesian Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Mirosław Jacek Błaszczyk and Massimiliano Caldi, and with academic orchestras led by Szymon Bywalec, Michał Klauza and Krzesimir Dębski.